Travel Club Plans Skyline Drive Outing

by Rae Algaze

In response to popular demand (as evidenced by a sampling of opinions of citizens who indicated their preference at the Twin Pines office), the Greenbelt Travel Club is sponsoring a one-day trip by bus to Skyline Drive and Luray Caverns of Virginia. The date is October 18, departure time from Greenbelt, West parking lot is 12:30 p.m., and return to Greenbelt around 10:00 p.m. Reservations will be on a first come, first served basis, with October 15, as the cut-off date.

As was done on the return trips from the New York World's Fair, our courteous and friendly bus driver will let passengers off at their respective courts, assuring them a safe arrival.

Those travelers not interested in exploring the Luray Caverns may visit Lurays Antique Car Museum, which has on view automobiles as early as 1892, or hear a recital at the Singing Tower of Luray. Food may be brought along on the bus, or bought at a number of fine eating places in the vicinity. This promises to be a perfect day's outing, featuring convenience, economy, and fun. Bring your camera!

If you are interested in a further discussion of this trip and other travel topics, please come to the first meeting of the Greenbelt Travel Club, which will be held tonight, Thursday, October 8, at 8:30 p.m., at the Co-op Hospitality Room, (in the Co-op Supermarket). The agenda will include talks of future trips, the organization of a Hiking Club within the framework of the Travel Club, and a slide show. Those particularly interested in a hiking Club are invited to help make a selection for our first outing. We look forward to a large turnout, particularly by those who have participated in the Worlds Fair trips!

Public Works Activities:

Superintendent of Public Works, Buddy Attick, reports that his men are now grading a pathway along the north side of Crescent Road from Northway Road to the walkway to St. Hugh's School. This walkway will run a distance of approximately 150' and will be surfaced by the County with stone chips.

The General Crew has also finished back-filling the curb and gutter work on Ridge Road and has completed most of the touch-up work on the recent General Construction Contract. The seeding and sodding of the disturbed areas is expected to be done shortly.

By the end of this week the crew will be painting parking space lines in the west parking lot and marking off several of the parking courts about the city.

Fill for Lake Area:

Bowman Runs for Congress As Independent Democrat

Bruce Bowman of 14-Z-3 Laurel Hill road, Greenbelt, has announced his candidacy as an independent Democratic write-in candidate for Congress in Maryland's 5th Congressional district. He did so at the urging of friends who felt his candidacy would encourage a "positive program of progress" in the areas of peace, civil rights, foreign & domestic economic aid and consumer protection.

Bowman's platform calls for "intensive conversations" with countries in areas of tension, support of arms control and disarmament, continuation and widening of the test-ban treaty and strengthening of the United Nations. He favors support and enforcement of the civil rights act, continued support of the peace corps, extension of aid to underdeveloped countries and relaxation of the cold war.

On the domestic front Bowman stresses public and cooperative housing, community rehabilitation through neighborhood planning, job retraining and a domestic peace corps. He supports medical care for the aged under social security and feels the nation should plan conversion and readjustment of its economic life as military and space expenditures are reduced in favor of education, housing and community development.

Bruce Bowman is 50 years old and has resided in Greenbelt for 20 years. A management analyst for the Navy Federal Credit Union, Bowman has been active in public life, serving as a city councilman and helping organize many cooperative projects.

Arts & Crafts Guild To Consider Ceramics

The Greenbelt Arts and Crafts Guild, reasonably pleased with the success of its modest current program in the field of fine arts, is now considering a similar program in the crafts area. To ascertain the extent of interest, a meeting will be held this Friday, October 9, at Twin Pines, at 8 p.m.

Discussion will center around the possibility of a ceramics activity similar to the present Wednesday night workshop in oil painting, and the possible demand for more formal classes in ceramics. Tentative solutions to the problem of equipment—kilns and the like—will be mentioned.

Mrs. Evelyn Boggs, crafts instructor at the Youth Center, will be present to aid in the discussion.

Additional fill dirt is being hauled by the contractor of the Capital Beltway to the City parkland below the dam at the lake. A developer in the area is also expected to bring in some fill. After all fill work is done, the area will be graded level and seeded. This portion of the lake park will then be much more useful for park and recreation activities.

PTA Week

Governor J. Millard Tawes has proclaimed the week of October 11-17, as PTA Week in Maryland. Governor Tawes cited Md. PTA for its efforts promote the welfare of children and youth in home, church, school and community.

School Lunch Week

An official proclamation has been issued by President Lyndon B. Johnson for the observance of National School Lunch Week "to promote understanding and awareness of the school lunch program to the child, home, farm, industry, and the nation." The theme for the observance of National School Lunch Week, scheduled for October 11-17, 1964, will be "School Lunch Serves Youth."

In Prince George's County, 102 public schools participated in the National School Lunch. The number of lunches served to children during 1963-64 totaled 6,403,566 and the number of 1/2 pints of milk purchased totaled 14,620,523. Free lunches numbered 99,513.

City Council Gets Ordinance To Control Disorderly Conduct

by Charles T. McDonald

The city council meeting agenda on Monday, Oct 5, touched about every facet of city government and community interest, including even the approval of an expenditure of $400 for a new tape recorder for the council.

Police Chief William Lane rendered a report to council on disorderly persons in the center and vandalism. He proposed an officer be assigned to the area on foot and carry a transistorized portable two-way radio to keep in contact with the police station. The chief also proposed a behavior ordinance of an extensive nature. (see accompanying box).

PROPOSED ORDINANCE

It shall not be lawful for any person, or persons, within the City Limits of Greenbelt, Maryland to congregate or assemble in any street, avenue, alley, road or highway, or in or around by public building or enclosure and engage in any loud boisterous talking, or any other disorderly conduct so as to disturb the public peace, or to insult or make rude or obscene gestures or comments or observations to persons passing by, or in their hearing, or to crowd, obstruct, or incommode the free use of any such street, the free entrance into any public or private building or enclosure; that it shall not be lawful for any person or persons to curse, swear or to make use of any profane language, indecent or obscene words, or to engage in any disorderly conduct in any street, avenue, alley, road, highway or any foot pavements thereof, or avenue, alley, road, highway, public park, public building, church, assembly room, or in any other public place, or in any place where the same can be heard in any street, avenue, alley, road, highway, public park, or other buildings, or in any premises other than those where the offense was committed. Upon conviction thereof, shall be subject to a fine not less than twenty-five dollars, and not more than fifty dollars, or thirty days in the County Jail.

The vandalism report had to do with the damage to the Youth Center, approximately $200, the fire at the statue in the center and fires started in the trash baskets around the center. No mention was made of the apprehension of any of the offenders. The proposed ordinance was referred to the city solicitor for such appropriate changes as legally necessary.

The recently formed Greenbelt-Beltsville unit of the League of Women Voters will meet Monday evening, October 12, at 8 p.m. at the Co-op Hospitality Room in Greenbelt. For further information call the membership chairman, Mrs. Henry Jordan, 935-2621. All interested women are invited to attend.

CORRECTION

The telephone number to call for information about MATERNA was incorrectly listed in last week's News Review. The number should be CR 3-7744.

MATERNA is an organization of nurses devoted to preparing expectant mothers for childbirth.

The city solicitor was assigned another task when the doctors who are building the medical center building requested a legal access to their property, inasmuch as their 7500 square ft site is land locked by the center mall and other city owned land not properly dedicated to public use. Councilman Bernstein pointed out that the request was only a legal document that could be recorded, granting to the owners of this piece of land the same rights and privileges that the City had intended to grant to whomsoever owned this property when the parking lot property was sold to the city by GCS (Co-op). The document was referred to the city solicitor for his recommendations.

The city treasurer indicated that several departments will not have sufficient funds to operate until the end of the present year and proposed an ordinance that would transfer funds to the departments that need the funds. The ordinance was approved by council by the suspension of the rules.

The public works department came in for its mention in a request from Bill Clark (Mr. Baseball) that the hard ball field be reconditioned this fall in order that it be in condition in time for spring practice. The problem was referred to the public works director for a report at the next meeting.

The engineer inspector of the Springhill Lake roadways asked city council to approve the omission of sidewalks along the perimeter roadways, where they abut the Junior High School and the Beltway Plaza property. The present city ordinance permits this action by city council but the problem was referred to the school board for their reaction before any final decision was made.

The recreation department got their mention in a request from Mrs. A. Shiren, professionally known as "Sari", for the conversion of the Athletic Clubhouse to an Art Center for instruction in painting and ceramics primarily for children but not limited to them. The council expressed interest and referred the problem to the city manager and the recreation director as to what might be involved in the way of costs in the preparation of the building, as well as the cost of operating the program suggested.

Another subject that was referred to the recreation director for a report was a request of St. Hugh's Home and School Association for the use of the Youth Center facilities during the school day between 12 and one o'clock as their school recreation program.

City council set up a series of meetings with its Advisory Planning Board, the first being a meeting with the Prince Georges County School Board in reference to the proposed schools to be built in Greenbelt, October 13 at Upper Marlboro; the second was with an attorney from the Goddard Space Agency Monday October 12 at 8 p.m. and Charles Bresler at 9:30 p.m. at the city offices.

The city manager was requested to answer a letter from Mr. Eckert of the Board of Education in which he requested the construction of a walkway from the new Charlestowne Village to accommodate the children of that subdivision who are not entitled to bus service because they live within a mile of Center School. The manager's report indicated that there are now only seven children enrolled from the subdivision and the expense would not be justified at this time. The manager's answer was that the problem was one of the special areas requiring bus service by the Board of Education.

The meeting adjourned at 1 p.m. with an incomplete agenda, until Wed. Oct. 7 at 8 p.m.

PRaise FOR TRASHMEN

To the Editor:

I never wrote a letter to an editor before, but "GARBAGE COLLECTION?" annoys me to the point of sounding off.

In the last four years I have NEVER had one piece of garbage left behind, the can never blocks my doorway - it isn't even removed from the closet, and the door is usually neatly closed when I come home in the evening. The remedy is painfully simple. I put all of my trash and garbage in large grocery bags before placing it in the can - even to the point of buying extra bags when needed. Wet and smelly garbage goes into odd plastic or ice cream bags. The men simply lift the bags out - my garbage can stays clean and the closet doesn't smell! While my motives are purely selfish (I can't stand cleaning a stinking garbage can), I believe I also help the poor garbage collectors.

The garbage collectors of Greenbelt are the HARDEST-WORKING men I've seen anywhere! They RUN, straining at those heavy baskets - and only a holiday ever interferes with that regular Monday-Wednesday-Friday pick-up. Surely the people of Greenbelt could help them a little, while helping themselves a lot more!

GOLDEN AGERS NEED RIDES

To the Editor

I have been asked to present myself as spokesman for a group of Greenbelt's elderly citizens who are facing the probability of not being able to attend the weekly meetings of the Golden Age Club because of the distance between their homes and the location of the meeting place, the Youth Center.

They had been able to get transportation on the Fire Department's bus but the bus broke down and left some of our elderly citizens without transportation and not feeling up to walking the long distance in the rain and the cold air.

Our plea now goes out to the many housewives in Greenbelt who have cars and who might be able to gather up these dear folk on Wednesdays and permit them to attend their meetings. All that would be involved is for a car to pick up some of the members and deliver them to the Youth Center and then pick them up after the meeting to bring them home.

Our elderly citizens look forward to these weekly meetings with much anticipation. Will some younger citizens help them? Call Richtie Stevenson at the Youth Center, GR 4-6878, and tell him I sent you.
